Volleyball runs in my family. I picked up my first volleyball at the age of 7 and peppered frequently with two of my four sisters. Both sisters trained with the Philippine Women's National Team, one became a DIII collegiate setter in the US and the other pursued a career in professional soccer. My playing career was spent in Manila, Philippines as an Outside Hitter in elementary, middle school and high school. A brief stint in the training pool of the Philippine Youth National Team exposed me to international competition. The rest of my family played other sports, however my daughter caught the volleyball bug and is a product of the A5 program as a player and has proudly served on the A5 coaching roster as well.

Outside of volleyball, I have held careers in various industries - corporate human resources, sports management, culinary arts and special events/logistics. I currently work in the booming Atlanta TV/Film industry (my dream job is to work on my favorite shows - the Amazing Race and Homeland!). I'm active at my church and serve in the production ministry. As a foodie, I love exploring different cuisines and traveling to satisfy my curious palate. My varied interests in life and passion for learning allow me to morph into better versions of myself. My life is constantly on the go, I wouldn't know what to do with myself if I weren't busy!

I have called Atlanta my home since 1992. I graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1995 with a degree in Business Administration and Behavioral Sciences, minor in Asian Studies.
